3. World Health Day

World Health Day is being celebrated across the globe today to raise awareness about health and good health practices. The World Health Organisation (WHO) has declared healthy beginnings, hopeful futures as the theme this year to end preventable maternal and newborn deaths and to prioritize women's longer-term health and well-being. On the occasion, Prime Minister Narendra Modi reaffirmed his commitment to building a healthier world. In his message, he stated that the government will continue to focus on healthcare and invest in various aspects of people's well-being. Mr Modi emphasized that good health is the foundation of every thriving society.

In an exclusive interview with Akashvani News, Minister of State for Health and Family Welfare Anupriya Patel highlighted the nation's commendable achievements in the health sector, including the significant fall in maternal and infant mortality ratios. She also appealed to everyone to adopt a healthy lifestyle.

4. 14th April B.R Ambedkar Birthday

Ambedkar Jayanti, also known as Bhim Jayanti, is observed on 14 April to commemorate the memory of B. R. Ambedkar, Indian politician and social reformer. It marks Ambedkar's birthday who was born on 14 April 1891. His birthday is also referred to as Equality Day by some in India.

5. World Labour Day

International Labour Day, sometimes referred to as May Day, is observed worldwide on May 1st each year. This day honours the industrious people whose commitment and work have moulded economies and communities all around the world. Not only should their efforts be honoured, but they should also be empowered to understand their rights.

May Day, also known as International Workers' Day, has developed into a powerful representation of social justice, solidarity, and the ongoing fight for workers' rights. As we count down to International Labour Day 2025, let us know its origin, theme, and the intriguing differences in its observance around the world.

7. 11th Mather's Day

Mother's Day Summary – The play begins with two friends having a candid conversation at Mrs Pearson's house. Mrs Fitzgerald is telling Mrs Pearson's fortune and advises her on it. Mrs Pearson goes about telling how her family members don't value her and don't appreciate whatever she does for them. She is available for them 24*7 and all they do is come in, throw orders around at her and leave without even saying thank you. Mrs Fitzgerald tells her to take her stand as the woman of the house but Mrs Pearson, being the sweet and innocent lady doesn't want to bring her family any sort of discomfort. She continues to handle their tantrums because she doesn't know where to begin when it comes to making them disciplined. Mrs Fitzgerald proposes a plan to switch their bodies so that Mrs Fitzgerald takes her place without her family knowing. Mrs Pearson is hesitant at first but then Mrs Fitzgerald convinces her for it. Mrs Fitzgerald performs her magic that she'd learned from the East and their personalities are changed. Now, Mrs Fitzgerald is actually in Mrs Pearson's body and vice-versa. Now, new Mrs Pearson tells Mrs Fitzgerald to go to her house for the time being. At this moment in the play, Doris Pearson, daughter of Mrs Pearson enters the scene asking for tea and ordering Mrs Pearson to iron her yellow silk.

8. Tree Plantation Day

Planting trees is a simple yet powerful way to combat environmental degradation. Trees enhance our surroundings, absorb carbon dioxide, release oxygen, and maintain ecological balance. Our tree plantation programs reflect our commitment to environmental responsibility and our dedication to future generations. We aim to create a greener, healthier planet for everyone. Together, we can preserve nature's gifts and ensure a sustainable environment, and well-being for generations to come.

9. Anti Child Labour Day

The International Labour Organization (ILO) launched the World Day Against Child Labour in 2002 to focus attention on the global extent of child labour and the action and efforts needed to eliminate it. Each year on 12 June, the World Day brings together governments, employers and workers organizations, civil society, as well as millions of people from around the world to highlight the plight of child labourers and what can be done to help them.

The Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), adopted by world leaders in 2015, include a renewed global commitment to ending child labour. Specifically, target 8.7 of the Sustainable Development Goals calls on the global community to: "Take immediate and effective measures to eradicate forced labour, end modern slavery and human trafficking and secure the prohibition and elimination of the worst forms of child labour, including recruitment and use of child soldiers, and by 2025 end child labour in all its forms."

SECRETARIAL REPORT

GOKULPUR NASHEAT ALLIANCE SOCIETY is in-service of people in need of Murshidabad district as a reputed People's platform. During the last year (2024-25) it serves is a typically, social, economical and cultural milieu. Due to its resources limitation it serves its work for the backward and poor population of Murshidabad – Jiaganj Block of Murshidabad, West Bengal with an aim to integrated the resources and channelizing for a better humanity.

It renders services which include education with basic health care, income generation and environment protection. Not only that the organization is making a bridges between the people and resources. It makes an important contribution to strengthening economic and social cohesion and strengthening relations underprivileged section Murshidabad of West Bengal. From the early results coming through, we can start to see how the programmes are generation positive change among its targeted beneficiaries.

This annual report provides an overview of the work underway and sets out examples of achievements.

We also highlight results achieved in three key sectors: child welfare, women's empowerment and alternative income among unemployed youth with human rights and justice. Our support in these areas fosters sustainable development of suffering community.

Child welfare:

The children of poor community approaches to break their vicious cycle of own community. Identification and organization of these children was a challenge overcome through inclusive service delivery system by our staff. They are now under coverage of mainstream education, health care & nutrition and computer literacy programme and so forth. Achievement is noted that they are now successfully challenging their obstacles.

Women's empowerment:

Women and girls under our attention are the victims of social religious politics. These female belong to backward and minority (Muslim) community. Their lives were bonded with typical gender baseness No access of education early marriage marital torture and violence act including poor economy was common incidence in their life. They are identified and selected for training for alternative livelihood and after that, they are approaching to economically independent. Social as well as gender justice are gradually touching their lives through peaceful living.

Meaningful employment to the unemployed youth:

It provides skill training and carrier guidance to the rural youth for their meaningful employment.

Drawing on the strengths and expertise of our partners, be they individuals, government agencies or donors, we have been able to introduce fresh thinking and innovative solutions. Taking a look back, we take pride in what has been achieved so far. This is however just the start; many more results are still to come as implementation progresses.

All its activities has been reaching to possibilities with active co-operation of people of different concerns for whom all our deepest sense of gratitude is always with them. We hope you enjoy reading about the results of our work and cooperation.
